NEWSPAPER LAW OF OREGON.—Section 2802 of the laws of Oregon provides that whenever any person controlling a newspaper shall mail such newspaper to any person in this State without first receiving an order therefor, such newspaper shall be deemed to be a gift, and no debt or obligation shall accrue against such person, whether said newspaper is received by the person to whom it is sent or not.

TUESDAY JUNE 2, 1908.

HAVE SOMETHING DOING

Friday and Saturday June 5th and 6th should be big days for Klamath Falls and Klamath County. The people of Klamath Falls should appreciate the opportunity that is given them, by the farmers' Institute and the meeting of the Water Users' on those days, and do some tall hustling to fill this town full of people. This can be easily done if everyone will urge their friends in the country to be sure and be here. Send out a special invitation and offer some inducement besides the Institute. Let the merchants give special bargains on those days and make it worth while, so that the farmers can bring their families to town and do their purchasing while here. Let us wake up and do something.

Despite the qualifications he says she possesses for business life, John D. Rockefeller says he believes woman's place is the home. "It is made for her," he told a New York reporter sent to interview him on his Pocantico Hills golf links, "and she adorns it better than she does the office or shop." I believe it is largely women's fault if they work," he said "There are exceptional cases, but most of women if they make up their minds early enough, become the housekeepers rather than the bread earners. That does not imply that the women are not eminently fitted for most of the occupations they pursue. As a rule they are conscientious, painstaking and have the other requirements for business life. But I dare say they are happier as mothers and keepers of homes." Then the billionaire's conversation turned to himself. "I work as hard as any man who lives by the sweat of his brow," he said "and harder than you who live by the sweat of your pens. But work to me is a real pleasure. Do you see that house?" pointing to the new mansion upon which dozen of workmen are working. "I have shovel a mortar and carried bricks—not gold bricks—to the very top. I am a hardy son of toil. Sleep well, eat well work well, and put by for a rainy day—those are the rules to keep if one would become a golf expert."

Grover Cleveland has suffered another sinking spell, according to Wall street reports, said to emanate from Equitable Life sources. The excessive humidity, to which his relapse is attributed, is said decidedly to have lessened the former president's chances for recovery. The usual secrecy continues to prevail at the Lakewood hotel, whence it has still proved impossible, on account of his illness to remove the patient. All hopes of taking him to his summer home at Tamworth, N. H. are now said to have been abandoned and persistent rumors are in circulation that the doctors have warned the family that they gravely doubt whether he will ever regain his health.

Representative Hamlin of Missouri diverted the House for a while in illustrating the immensity of the session's appropriations. The total is $1,023,000,000. In $20 gold pieces this weighs 1851 tons. In allowing one ton to a load it would require a train of wagons seven and a half miles long to transport it. To pack it on men's backs, allowing 150 pounds to a man, would require every representative who voted for Speaker Cannon's election as a representative and 1,240 Democrats beside.

Curious ground is set forth in the papers filed in support of a motion for a new trial for J. C. Duncan, convicted of murder at Chattanooga, Tenn. The allegation is made that the jury, immediately on retiring, and before deliberating on the case, prayed for half an hour for guidance. After being out a verdict of first degree murder was rendered, the foreman weeping as the verdict was announced. The tears and the 39 minutes of prayer are part of the grounds upon which a re-trial is asked.

Members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union in Minnesota, think Carrie Nation is entitled to a hero medal and have so informed Andrew Carnegie. The claim is based on the idea that Carrie Nation did more than any other person to start the present prohibition movement, though it does not appear exactly where the heroism comes in. Nothing has been heard from Mr. Carnegie or his commission on the matter.
